

Who qualifies as individual applicants for a US Visa through the Business Visa Program?

AmCham China offers US visa assistance to member companies upon their enrollment in the Business Visa Program ("The Program"). This initiative is designed to aid employees who have been in their roles for more than six months, along with their immediate families (additional documentation is necessary), enabling them to travel to the US for business purposes with BVP-affiliated companies.

Applicants can apply for B-1/2; C-1, H-1/2, J-1/2 and L-1/2 visa through AmCham China's Business Visa Program. For more detailed information on US visa classes, please visit the US government website: usvisas.state.gov

The Business Visa Program is specifically crafted to streamline the visa application process. It is exclusively intended for business travel by direct employees of member companies who have completed more than six months in their current position. Eligible individuals can apply for a visa through AmCham. For new and recent hires, the application process should be initiated via the website at <http://ustraveldocs.com/cn/cn-niv-visaapply.asp>.

Citizens of the following countries can travel to the US for short-term (90 days or less) tourist or business activities without a US Visa, provided they possess machine-readable passports (MRP): Andorra, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brunei, Chile, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Republic of Korea, San Marino, Singapore, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan, and the United Kingdom.
